SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. Your script must be an ORIGINAL, UNPRODUCED work of up to 10 minutes in length.
Scripts with a duration of longer than 10 minutes cannot be considered.
Please time your script by reading it aloud, allowing for pauses, silence and action.*
2. Your script can be on any theme, set in any location, and take place in the past, present or future.
3. Your script's protagonist/character may be from any cultural or linguistic background, of any age, any orientation, any gender, and any level of ability.
4. Your script must be submitted as a BLIND read - ie. an anonymous script on which your name does not appear anywhere. This is to ensure a fair and just judging process which is based entirely on the script's merit rather than on any credentials the writer may have. Scripts containing the writer's name on any page cannot be considered.
5. Scripts submitted in previous years may not be re-submitted.
6. Scripts received after 5pm on Thursday 30th April cannot be considered.
7. Please ensure that your script follows a conventional layout which includes: title page (on which your name does not appear), character list; SCRIPT typed in 1.5 spacing, 12pt font, numbered pages. Your title page should be plain, free of images or decoration.
8. Judges will not receive any information about the writer's identity until after final selection has taken place.
9. A total of 6 scripts will be selected for presentation in The Metropolis Monologues..
10. Selected writers and scripts will be announced on the MWT website on Monday 15th June.

Happy Writing!
